FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE—May 11, 2005

Keuka College's 97th Commencement Set for Sunday, May 29

KEUKA PARK, N.Y.—Keuka College's Class of 2005 will receive degrees at the College's 97th commencement Sunday, May 29.

Undergraduate and graduate students will participate in the ceremony that begins at 12:30 p.m. on the Norton Chapel lawn (Weed Physical Arts Center in case of inclement weather).

Albin Moschner, executive vice president/chief marketing officer for Leap Wireless, will deliver the commencement address. Leap Wireless is a wireless phone service provider in San Diego, Calif.

Formerly, Moschner was president of Verizon Card Services and, before it was acquired by Verizon, president and chief executive officer of OnePoint Services Inc., a telecommunications company located in Lake Forest, Ill.

Moschner had a distinguished career with Zenith Electronics, starting in 1991 as vice president of operations. He was elected to the board of directors in 1992, promoted to president in 1994, and added the CEO title in 1995. Moschner resigned from Zenith in 1996 after successfully completing the sale of the company to LG Electronics, a subsidiary of Lucky Goldstar Group.

He is a director of Pella Windows Corp., Wintrust Financial Corp., and Apex Insurance Managers. He is also a trustee of WTTW, Chicago's PBS television and radio station.

A graduate of Syracuse University (M.S.) and The City College of New York (B.E.), he and wife Mary Ann, a 1974 Keuka graduate and member of the College's governing board, have four children.

Three emeriti members of the Keuka Board of Trustees—Calvin J. Haller, Norman E. Joslin, and Frank P. Strong Jr.—will receive honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degrees at the 2005 commencement.
