Sons of Pitches to Perform May 13

Concert to Benefit Campus Activities Board

KEUKA PARK, N.Y.—The Ithaca-based group Sons of Pitches will perform at Keuka College Friday, May 13 at 8 p.m. in Norton Chapel.

Sons of Pitches is comprised of five classically trained vocal musicians—Ryan James, Ross Mizrahi, Thomas Morris, Eric Toyama, and James Wheel—who perform a wide range of songs, including pop, classic rock, country, folk covers, and many original pieces.

The quintet got its start as an a cappella group, but recently began putting its arrangements to music.

In addition to performing for college crowds, Sons of Pitches has performed in main stage concerts and opened for national acts. They have shared the bill with Barenaked Ladies, Hootie & the Blowfish, Diamond Rio, and Rascal Flatts, to name a few.

The group was voted Audience Favorite at Harmony Sweepstakes 2004, and has sold some 25,000 CDs.

The cost of the concert is $1 for Keuka students and $3 for members of the community. Proceeds will benefit the Campus Activities Board (CAB).
