Keuka College Students to Collect Donations for Troops at StarShine Dec. 3

KEUKA PARK, N.Y.—StarShine, the annual holiday celebration that takes place in downtown Penn Yan, provides ample opportunity to shop for gifts with its variety of vendor booths and accessibility to local shops offering discounted prices.

At this year's event, Dec. 3, there will an opportunity to give gifts as well.

Representatives from the Keuka College Republicans, Democrats, and Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE), co-sponsors of Holiday Drive for the Troops, will be available to collect donations from members of the community from 5-9 p.m.

Acceptable items for donation include: non-perishable snack foods; Kool-Aid; socks; toiletries (excluding toilet paper); new or used electronics (especially DVDs and CDs); books and magazines; board games, card games, and handheld electronic games; and new batteries.

Spare change is also welcome to cover shipping costs.

“We want to collect as many things as possible to send to the troops so that they are not forgotten this Christmas,” said SIFE member Amanda Auriemma. “The donations are scheduled for shipment just in time to reach the troops for the holidays.”
