FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – May 1, 2006

Tour of Italy Planned for January 2007

KEUKA PARK, N.Y. — Italy has been described as an outdoor museum and in January, area residents will get a chance to tour that museum.

Sander Diamond, professor of history at Keuka College will lead the tour, which will count as a Group Field Period for students.

Participants will travel to Florence, Venice, San Gimignano, Perugia, Assisi, Spoleto, Terni, Pisa, Pompeii, Sorrento, Naples, the Amalfi Coast, and the island of Capri.

Airfare, first class and deluxe hotels, breakfasts, dinners, and sightseeing costs, as well as tour director, tour guides, and entry fees are included in the estimated $3,350 cost.

An interest session will be held Monday, May 8 at 6 p.m. in the lobby of Hegeman Hall. Diamond has led tours to such countries as the former USSR, Germany and Central Europe, Poland, the United Kingdom, New York City, France, Israel, and Jordan.

For more information, contact Diamond at (315) 279-5239.
