FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Oct. 19, 2005

Singer-Songwriter, Guitarist Jason LeVasseur To Perform Nov. 10 at Keuka College

KEUKA PARK, N.Y. – Award-winning singer-songwriter and guitarist Jason LeVasseur will perform at Keuka College Thursday, Nov. 10.

The concert, free and open to the public, begins at 8 p.m. in the Terrace.

LeVasseur is also a member of the award-winning band Life in General. The group was selected as one of Musician magazine's "Top 100 Unsigned Bands" in the country and was voted the National Association for Campus Activities' (NACA) "Music Artist of The Year." In 2002, Campus Activities magazine named LeVasseur the "Best Small Venue Performer."

LeVasseur has three albums, including his most recent release Driver Is the DJ. The album features styles ranging from blues, sentimental ballad, and rock 'n' roll. In 2003, LeVasseur toured nationally for The Opening Guy, a live collection of 10 acoustic songs. His debut album, Watching the Girls Go By, came out in 2001.

LeVasseur has toured and performed internationally while sharing the stage with such talents as the Dave Matthews Band, John Mayer, the Wallflowers, Widespread Panic, and Vertical Horizon. Four of LeVasseur's songs appear in feature-length movies, with one song appearing on the EA Sports video game Triple Play 2000.
