Keuka College will Award Fellowships to Top High School Experiential Learners

Experiential Learner of the Month will be featured on Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Watertown, and Binghamton TV Stations

KEUKA PARK, N.Y.—Keuka College has established a program that will honor high school students whose commitment to experiential, hands-on learning has made a difference in their communities.

Each month (September-May) during the academic year, Keuka will recognize a high school senior who exhibits outstanding academic achievement, service to the community and leadership qualities as the Experiential Learner of the Month. These students will receive a partial academic fellowship to Keuka College. At the end of the year, an Experiential Learner of the Year will be awarded a full academic fellowship (provided the student meets Keuka College's admissions criteria).

“As the national leader in experiential, hands-on learning, we want to enhance the experiential learning that takes place at the high school level,” said College President Joseph G. Burke.

Executive Vice President Carolanne Marquis said the Experiential Learner of the Month program continues a Keuka tradition of “rewarding high school students who have demonstrated academic excellence and social responsibility.”

The Experiential Learner of the Month Award-winner will be featured on television stations throughout central, western, and northern New York state, as well as the Southern Tier.

The participating stations include:

- WTVH, Channel 5, Syracuse (CBS).
- WROC, Channel 8, Rochester (CBS).
- WKBW, Channel 7, Buffalo (ABC).
